

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is wrong!

They use the public airwaves free of charge, and should be obligated by law to serve the public interest. Clearly that isn't happening when they can force stations to air a piece like Stole Honor in an obvious attempt to influence a political election. Isn't this illegal? Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter. Please strengthen media ownership rules and don't just "rubber stamp" their renewal requests. We American taxpayers are counting on the FCC to keep things fair! Please don't let us down. Thank you.
